Congress Should Question Powers Says Van Zandt

CHARLESTON, W. Va. (UPI)—

A Republican Congressman said Tuesday he felt that U2 pilot Francis Gary Powers should appear before a subcommittee to determine if he "violated the terms of his contract" which called for destruction of the plane and film when it went down over Russia.

Rep. James E. Van Zandt of Pennsylvania made the statement at a news conference prior to delivering an address to a Lincoln Day dinner here Tuesday night.

Van Zandt, ranking Republican member of the Central Intelligence Agency subcommittee of the House Armed Forces Committee, said he felt the committee should receive all the details from Powers concerning the incident of May 1, 1960.

Van Zandt also expressed some reservations about the Area Redevelopment Act.

"The Act will not solve chronic unemployment," he said. "People who expect jobs overnight under the act will be disappointed." Van Zandt also said he favored, instead, "a faster tax write-off to spur business into creating new jobs as a solution to unemployment."

Van Zandt also criticized the Kennedy administration's foreign policy.

"... administration spoke to the American people that Laos is not lost. Laos is lost, the Communies have taken over, and the American people already accept that fact."

"Berlin wall represents a victory for the West, administration says. The fact is Berlin wall has lowered American prestige. All of our friends are asking what's the matter with Uncle Sam. Let them get away with
